W. M. SEAWELL.

It may seem mysterious to many who are ignorant of the fact, why Judge Seawell received so small a vote for Supreme Judge in his own Judicial District, at the recent election, while a handsome majority was given him for District Judge two years ago. The reason assigned to us by a centleman of the district is, that all classes-Demperats and Republicans-having become warmly attached to the J-dge for his gentlemanly demeanor at I nomination in the State Convention, to order that his services might be retained. Failing to prevent the nomi nation, a large number of Democrats refused to vote for him for Supreme Judge, as well as Republicans, who otherwise would have given him their hearty support. His defeat was agree able to the people of Lyon and E-mer aida, masmuch as they feared his place would not be filled by one satisfactory to all. As the matter stands now, Judge Seawell can hold his present position as long as he wants it-be his political opinions what they may, He is a man of fine legal attainments and a gentleman under all circums ances. We knew him as a miner, in California, in 1854, and then as now, an upright man.

The Record of this morning admits that Judge Garber resigned. We prequiet so as to have toe appointment to make, instead of giving the people chance to elect Garber's successor. The Judge intends to come to Pioche practice his profession.-[Pioche Re-view.
